

“Our Charlie boy! He’s only been with us for a few weeks but we already can’t imagine life without him. We weren’t actually planning on getting another dog, but as one does when you’re on a break at work, I figured I would look on the Humane Society website. I’ve done it before and would send my husband pictures of dogs and he would remind me that we don’t need three. But when I saw Charlie’s little face, he reminded me so much of a childhood dog named Skeeter. Skeeter and I were inseparable, she was a chihuahua too and she was my buddy. My husband humoured me, and as soon as he met Charlie he fell in love too.

He now prances around because he is so happy to have a home and he loves curling up on our shoulders or under our necks for a good snuggle. He also stands on his hind legs so well to ask for his treat! Super unusual for a chihuahua but he doesn’t bark either and he loves everyone. We are so lucky to have Mr. Charles! ❤️”
