

I adopted Indy in November of 2017. He was 8 years old at the time, overweight, and his coat was dull and in bad need of a good brushing. In March of that year, my beloved dog of 15 years, who I had also adopted from the SSMarie Humane Society when he was just a puppy, had passed away, and by the time November rolled around, I was in need of a canine companion. I helped him to shed that extra weight, and he now has a beautiful glossy coat. We love going for scenic adventure walkies to Bellevue Park, the Boardwalk, and Hiawatha. Everywhere we go, we hear the same thing....."Is that a CORGI??? He is beautiful!!"
