

Hi there!

I just wanted to reach out and give an update for our boy that I adopted from the humane society on April 10, 2017, and a thank you. When I went in to see the dogs available, he hadn't even been put on the website yet. I was told he was dropped off in the night, and literally ripped the night drop off area apart. I believe I was told he was approx a year and a half old. And he's been an amazing dog.

His name is Jax. Jaxon when he's in trouble. We adopted him a month or so before having to put down our rottie who had terminal bone cancer. My daughter at first, who was only 13, refused to accept him because of her loyalty and love for her rottie-boy. The support and comfort he provided for her when we put our rottie down was unreal.

6 years later, that dog, our beloved baby boy, is my daughters baby. He is her boy. We have since adopted another rescue, 1.5 years later, who's his mini me. A little tri-coloured chihuahua that was a puppy mill stud before coming to be part of our family. And he conveniently, is a mamas boy with me.

Thanks again for the work you do. I will always adopt from the rescues or humane societies, always have, and the animals have always been worth it. Our beloved pets. And family members.

Have a wonderful day! I've attached photos of Jax and his little bro Tucker.

And by all means if you do follow up stories feel free to use ours.

Warmest regards,

Jenny & Aislyn
