

A happy ending for this handsome little pup. Jaxon, formally known as Tobi is thriving in his new forever home with his furry brothers and sister!

Jaxon loves horsing around with dad and his big brother Owen, car rides and is so cuddly during downtime. He still has some training to do but it learning fast. A huge heartfelt thank you to the amazing staff at the SSM Humane Society for taking care of this guy before we could give him his former home. We could be happier ☐☐
