

I adopted Miss Lexi back in 2009. She's 8 now. She was a runaway that the owner did not want back. I will never understand why and am forever grateful she didn't take her back! Her and her year older sister Nova (who i got from an abused home) are inseparable and bring so much joy to my life. I'd be lost without them. I'm so proud of my two girls as they even won the HS calendar contest 2017!

Keep up the amazing work HS!
