

“My fiancé and I both grew up with dogs and knew it was time to have another dog in our lives. Luna was the missing piece to our puzzle to say the least.

Luna came into our lives just recently, but has already made a huge impact with her loving personality. She welcomes everyone into our home and easily makes friends. Her best puppy friend, Simba, definitely keeps her on her toes, but they have the cutest relationship.

She loves camping, bonfires, car rides, treats and will never turn down a belly rub before bed. We look forward to making lots of memories with Luna and are so thankful she became part of our family.”
