

Pippin (previously named Benji) has been the perfect addition into our home! He has such an energetic and loving heart. He loves to spend his day on his cat hammock by the window, cuddling and playing with his cat brother. Pippin has settled in beautifully and has gained healthy weight since being in our home. We have also discovered that he has a love for car rides. Couldn't imagine our home without him!

-Karen H.